Mr. Howard S. Resseid went to New York today to meet Mrs. Resseid, who is expected from Europe in a day or two. The Resseids will remain in Italy the coming winter.

St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Purcellville, Va., was the scene of a beautiful marriage yesterday afternoon, October 9, at 4 o'clock, when Miss Eloise Hirst, daughter of the late John Townsend and Mrs. Virginia Hirst, of New York City, was united in marriage to Mr. William Couper of New York City. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert C. Jones, rector of St. Peter's Church.

The bride, who is a handsome brunette, was gown in ivory satin and duchesse lace, with a collar and cuffs of yellow chrysanthemum. She wore a tulle veil and carried a bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. She was escorted to the altar by her brother, Mr. Virgilus B. Hirst, of Fayetteville, N. C., who gave her in marriage. The maid of honor was Miss Maryville Couper of Norfolk, Va., the groom's sister. She wore yellow satin under a gold lace coat and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemum. The bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Ayers of Keokuk, Iowa, and Miss Lullie Villard of Richmond, Va. They were gown in cream satin, with yellow sashes, and wore lace coats. Their flowers were yellow chrysanthemums. The best man was Mr. James B. L. Orme of New York City, and the ushers were Mr. James B. L. Orme, both of New York City.

The church was artistically decorated with bouquets of yellow chrysanthemum. The altar was draped with green plants and bunches of yellow chrysanthemum. The church was rendered by Miss Gertrude Hess of Hamilton, Va. The groom, who was formerly a student of the University of Virginia, is a graduate of the Virginia Military Institute and of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Couper left for a northern trip, after which they will reside at Richmond, Va., a suburb of New York City. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John D. Couper of Norfolk, Va., parents of the groom; Mr. William Couper, the sculptor, of New York City, and Rear Admiral W. L. Capps, U. S. N., of Philadelphia, both uncles of the groom; Mr. E. B. Hirst of Fayetteville, N. C., brother of the bride; Miss Kathleen Hirst of Alexandria, Va.; Mrs. Henry M. Kendrick of this city; Mrs. R. Guy Baldwin of Norfolk, Va.; Mr. Austin Stone and Miss Helen Stone of this city, in addition to members of the bride's party already mentioned. The presents were both handsome and numerous. PRESIDENT AND MRS. TAFT WILL VISIT MACVEAGHS.

Weddings Here and Elsewhere of Interest and Beauty—Travel Plans. Personal Notes.

The Secretary of the Treasury, Franklin MacVeagh, and Mrs. MacVeagh, who have the pleasure of entertaining the President and Mrs. Taft on their motor tour at their estate at Dublin, N. H., are expected in Chicago next week on a short trip. Eames MacVeagh has taken the apartments of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gillett on North State street until the return of the Gilletts from the east about November 1. Mr. MacVeagh will spend the winter at the University Club, Chicago.

The marriage of Miss Frances Thorn, daughter of Mrs. Charles G. Thorn, and Mr. Jules Vall, Jr., of St. Louis will take place on the afternoon of Saturday, October 19, at 4 o'clock at the family residence on Blinnmore street. Only a family party and a few personal friends have been asked to the ceremony, which has necessarily been made a quiet one by reason of a recent bereavement in the family. The bride is Miss Frances Thorn, daughter of Mrs. Charles G. Thorn, of St. Louis, and the groom is Mr. Jules Vall, Jr., of St. Louis. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Samuel P.
